Welcome to Clark County, Illinois, a fisherman's and floater's paradise! With over 100 miles of fishable rivers and streams, and several lakes and ponds, Clark County has something to offer anglers of all skill levels. And with its gentle currents and beautiful scenery, the Embarras River is perfect for a relaxing float trip.

This book is your complete guide to fishing and floating in Clark County, Illinois. It covers everything you need to know, from the best spots to fish to the best places to float. You'll also find information on local fishing regulations, bait shops, and boat launches.

Fishing

Clark County is home to a variety of fish species, including largemouth bass, smallmouth bass, crappie, bluegill, catfish, and carp. The best spots to fish vary depending on the time of year and the type of fish you're looking for. However, some of the most popular fishing spots in Clark County include:

- The Embarras River
- The Little Wabash River
- The Big Creek
- Lake Sara
- West Fork Lake

When fishing in Clark County, it's important to be aware of the local fishing regulations. You can find these regulations on the Illinois Department of Natural Resources website.

Floating

The Embarras River is the perfect river for a relaxing float trip. The current is gentle, and the scenery is beautiful. There are several different put-in and take-out points along the river, so you can customize your float trip to fit your needs.

Here are a few tips for planning a float trip on the Embarras River:

- Check the water levels before you go. The Embarras River can be too low or too high for floating at certain times of the year.

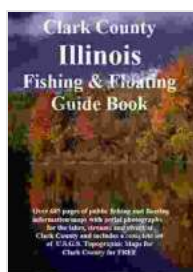

- Bring plenty of water and snacks. There are no services along the river, so you'll need to be self-sufficient.
- Wear sunscreen and a hat to protect yourself from the sun.
- Be aware of the weather forecast. If there is a chance of rain, be sure to bring a rain jacket or poncho.

Bait Shops and Boat Launches

There are several bait shops and boat launches located in Clark County. Here is a list of some of the most popular ones:

- Clark County Bait Shop
- Hank's Bait Shop
- Lake Sara Marina
- West Fork Marina

Clark County, Illinois is a great place to fish and float. With its variety of fish species, beautiful scenery, and gentle currents, Clark County has something to offer everyone. So grab your fishing gear or your inner tube and head to Clark County for a day of fun!
