When selecting your seat, you will have the option to choose a standard seat or an upgraded seat with extra legroom. Standard seats are free to select, while upgraded seats come with a small additional fee. Southwest Airlines does not assign seats, so you can choose your seat when you check in online or at the airport.

Checking In

Southwest Airlines offers several ways to check in for your flight. You can check in online, through the Southwest Airlines mobile app, or at the airport. Online check-in opens 24 hours before your flight and is the most convenient way to check in. You can select your seat, print your boarding pass, and check your bags (if applicable).

If you are checking in at the airport, you can use the self-service kiosks or check in with a Southwest Airlines agent. Kiosks are located throughout the airport and are available 24 hours a day. To check in at a kiosk, you will need your flight confirmation number and a government-issued ID.

Baggage

Southwest Airlines allows two free checked bags per passenger. Each bag must not exceed 50 pounds and 62 linear inches (length + width + height). You can also bring one carry-on bag and one personal item on board the plane. Carry-on bags must not exceed 24 inches x 16 inches x 10 inches, and personal items must not exceed 18 inches x 14 inches x 8 inches.

If you are checking bags, be sure to arrive at the airport at least 90 minutes before your flight. You can check your bags at the self-service kiosks or at a Southwest Airlines agent.

Boarding the Plane

Southwest Airlines uses a unique boarding process called "open seating." This means that you are not assigned a specific seat and can choose any open seat on the plane. Southwest Airlines boards passengers in three groups: Group A, Group B, and Group C.

* Group A: Passengers who have Free Downloaded an Upgraded Seat or a Business Select fare. * Group B: Passengers who have checked in online or through the Southwest Airlines mobile app within 24 hours of their flight. * Group C: Passengers who have not checked in online or through the Southwest Airlines mobile app within 24 hours of their flight.

Boarding begins 30 minutes before departure for Group A, 20 minutes before departure for Group B, and 10 minutes before departure for Group C.

In-Flight Experience

Southwest Airlines offers a variety of amenities during your flight. All flights include free Wi-Fi, movies, and TV shows. You can also Free Download snacks and drinks on board.

Southwest Airlines is known for its friendly and helpful staff. The flight attendants are always willing to assist you with any questions or needs you may have.

Arriving at Your Destination

When you arrive at your destination, you can deplane through either the front or rear of the plane. If you have checked bags, you can collect them at the baggage claim area. Southwest Airlines does not offer curbside baggage delivery.
