

Part II of New Zealand Trip: Unforgettable Beds We've Slept In

New Zealand is a country renowned for its stunning natural beauty, from its snow-capped mountains to its pristine beaches. But beyond its breathtaking landscapes, New Zealand also offers a diverse range of accommodation options, from cozy cabins to luxurious lodges. In this article, we will share some of the most unique and unforgettable beds we've slept in during our travels in New Zealand.

1. The Treehouse at the Lost Spring

Imagine waking up in a treehouse nestled amidst the lush rainforest of the Lost Spring thermal pools. The Treehouse at the Lost Spring offers a truly unique and unforgettable experience. The treehouse is beautifully appointed, with a comfortable bed, a private deck, and a stunning view of the rainforest canopy. Guests can also enjoy access to the Lost Spring's thermal pools, which are heated by geothermal waters.

2. The Hobbiton Bed & Breakfast

For fans of The Lord of the Rings, staying at the Hobbiton Bed & Breakfast is a must. The bed and breakfast is located on the actual set of the Hobbiton movie trilogy, and guests can choose to stay in one of the hobbit holes that were used in the films. The hobbit holes are cozy and comfortable, and they offer a unique opportunity to experience the world of Middle-earth.

3. The Tekapo Star Lodge

The Tekapo Star Lodge is located in the heart of the Aoraki Mackenzie International Dark Sky Reserve, making it the perfect place to stargaze. The lodge offers a variety of accommodation options, including private cabins and shared dormitories. All of the cabins and dormitories have large windows that offer stunning views of the night sky. Guests can also enjoy access to the lodge's hot tubs and sauna.

4. The Franz Josef Glacier Hot Pools & Spa

The Franz Josef Glacier Hot Pools & Spa is located at the foot of the Franz Josef Glacier. The hot pools are heated by geothermal waters, and they offer a relaxing and rejuvenating experience. Guests can also choose to stay in one of the spa's private cabins, which offer stunning views of the glacier.

5. The Milford Sound Lodge

The Milford Sound Lodge is located on the shores of Milford Sound, one of the most beautiful fiords in the world. The lodge offers a variety of accommodation options, including private cabins, shared dormitories, and a camping ground. All of the cabins and dormitories have stunning views of the fiord, and guests can also enjoy access to the lodge's restaurant, bar, and lounge.

New Zealand offers a diverse range of accommodation options, from cozy cabins to luxurious lodges.
