But if you're passionate about the circus, then it's definitely possible to make your dream a reality.

Here are a few tips on how to join the circus:

- Start by getting in shape. Circus performers are in excellent physical condition, so you'll need to be able to keep up with the demands of the job. This means eating a healthy diet, exercising regularly, and getting plenty of rest.

- Develop your skills. What are you good at? Can you juggle, tumble, or perform acrobatics? If you have any special skills, be sure to highlight them in your audition.
- Network with circus professionals. The best way to learn about the circus and how to join it is to talk to people who are already working in the industry. Attend circus events, meet with performers, and get your name out there.
- Audition for a circus. Once you're ready, it's time to audition for a circus. There are many different circuses out there, so do your research and find one that's a good fit for you. Be prepared to show off your skills and personality, and be sure to have a good attitude.

If you're successful in your audition, you'll be offered a contract to join the circus. This is a big moment, but it's also just the beginning. Circus life is hard work, but it's also an amazing experience. You'll get to travel the world, meet new people, and learn new skills. And best of all, you'll get to live out your dream of being a circus performer.
