Analysis and Insights

Our experts provide analysis and insights on each of the players ranked in the top 100, as well as the sleepers, rookies, and players to avoid. They discuss each player's strengths and weaknesses, their potential for success in the upcoming season, and how they could impact your fantasy football team.

Here are some of the key insights from our experts:

- Patrick Mahomes is the clear-cut number one player in the NFL, and he is poised to have another MVP-caliber season in 2023.
- Josh Allen and Aaron Rodgers are both elite quarterbacks who are capable of leading their teams to Super Bowls.
- Davante Adams is the best wide receiver in the NFL, and he is a must-have for any fantasy football team.
- Cooper Kupp is a rising star who is coming off a historic season in which he led the NFL in receptions, receiving yards, and touchdown receptions.

- Elijah Moore and Christian Watson are two young wide receivers who have the potential to break out in 2023.
- Breece Hall and Kenneth Walker III are two rookie running backs who could have a major impact on their teams in 2023.
- Ezekiel Elliott and Alvin Kamara are two running backs who are past their prime and should be avoided in fantasy football drafts.

Our experts have put together a comprehensive guide to help you make the best decisions for your fantasy football team in 2023. By following their advice, you can identify the players who will help you win your league and avoid the players who will hurt your chances of success.
