A Haunting Tale of Suspense

Thermal Kiss opens with an eerie scene that sets the tone for the rest of the novel. The protagonist, a young woman named Lily, is alone in her apartment when she receives a chilling phone call. The caller's voice is cold and menacing, and the words he whispers send shivers down her spine. As the phone call ends, Lily is left feeling terrified and vulnerable, knowing that her life will never be the same.

Soon after, Lily begins to notice a series of strange occurrences. She starts receiving anonymous gifts, her car is vandalized, and she feels like she is being watched at all times. The stalker's presence grows more and more menacing, and Lily becomes increasingly desperate to escape his clutches.

A Complex and Unforgettable Protagonist

Lily is a complex and unforgettable character. She is a strong and independent woman, but she is also vulnerable and afraid. As she tries to navigate the increasingly dangerous world around her, Lily must find the strength to overcome her fears and fight for her life.

Delappe does an excellent job of developing Lily's character throughout the novel. We see her grow and change as she faces the challenges that come her way. Lily is a relatable and sympathetic character, and readers will find themselves rooting for her every step of the way.
